ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BOARD

Role of the board

The board of directors is the ultimate decision making body of the Company and is solely responsible to the stakeholders of the Company for all aspects of its operations.

Authority of the board

The board has all and exclusive authority in the operation and administration of the Company except that authority expressly reserved by the constitution or the Corporations Act to be exercised by the members in general meeting.

The board may, by resolution, delegate to committees of the board and to management such authority as it determines is appropriate. Such delegations shall be in writing. However, the board may not delegate to management the matters expressly provided by the board charter or the constitution to be exercised only by the board

Responsibilities of the board

The board shall be responsible for assessing all aspects of the management of the Company, ensuring that the Company has the appropriate skills and experience to adequately ensure its performance and shall ensure that there are proper, adequate and effective internal controls in place at all times. In particular the following shall be responsibilities expressly reserved for the board and which may be exercised only by the board:

- oversight of the Company, including its control and accountability systems;
- appointing, reviewing the performance of, and removing the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operating Officer or Managing director (howsoever titled);
- ratifying the appointment and/or the removal, and contributing to the performance assessment of, the members of the senior management team including the Chief Financial Officer and the Company Secretary;
- input into and final approval of the Company's corporate strategy, business plan and performance objectives;
- reviewing and approving business plans, the annual budget and financial plans including available resources;
- Overseeing and monitoring:
 - compliance with Company's code of conduct;
 - progress in relation to the Company's diversity objectives and compliance with its diversity policy;
- ratifying and reviewing systems of risk management and internal compliance and controls, codes of conduct, and legal compliance (including compliance with ASX listing rules);
- monitoring senior management's performance and implementation of strategy, and ensuring proper resources are available;
- approving and monitoring the progress of major capital expenditure, capital management, and acquisition and divestitures;
- ensure there are effective management processes in place and approve major initiatives
